SITTINGBOURNE, KENT, UNITED KINGDOM, October 30, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ESJ Software, a UK telecommunications solution provider today announced the launch of its SiP4MOBiLES UK Unlimited Virtual Mobile Service for British Expats and International Travellers.

Using an Android or iOS SiP4MOBiLES App, the service offers British Expats and International Travellers a UK Virtual Mobile Number for receiving calls and text messages from UK based family and friends via any WiFi connection (receiving calls and text messages is free).

The graphic features a world map with the UK highlighted in red. Overlaid on the map is a dark grey rectangular box containing white text. At the top left of the box is the 'SiP4MOBiLES' logo. The main heading 'TRAVELLING OR LIVING ABROAD?' is in large, bold, white capital letters. Below this, there are two sections of text, each preceded by a right-pointing chevron. The first section says '> Use SiP4MOBiLES to stay connected with family, friends and business contacts back in the UK.' The second section says 'Using SiP4MOBiLES | You get a UK virtual mobile number for receiving calls and text messages globally for free via any WiFi connection & save up to 80% on international calls and text messages.'

SiP4MOBiLES also offers users unlimited calls to UK mobile and landline telephone numbers from any country.

ESJ Software's CEO Jeff Penberton said "Using SiP4MOBiLES, British Expats and International Travellers can remain connected with family and friends in the UK through the Plain Old Telephone .... Nan, Dad and Mum can easily get in touch for a chat without calling international and running up their phone bill - since SiP4MOBiLES makes calling you a standard UK mobile call"
