

IT Governance partners with IBITGQ to give a free training course package to a lucky winner in December

ELY, UK, November 6, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- IT Governance, the global provider of cyber security management expertise, has partnered with the International Board for IT Governance Qualifications (IBITGQ) to launch a November competition that will see the winner significantly boost their cyber security management skills. The prize represents a training course package worth up to £8000 – the winner will be able to select from a range of ISO27001, PCI DSS and ISO22301 courses.

IT Governance customers who spend £1,000 (exc VAT) or more on any IT Governance product or service in a single order in November will be entered into a prize draw to win a package of five classroom IBITGQ training courses. Visit the company's webshop at www.itgovernance.co.uk/shop.

Alan Calder, founder and executive chairman of IT Governance, says, "As a major provider of training courses, leading to industry-recognised qualifications, we are delighted that together with our partners, IBITGQ, we will be able to give one individual a chance to boost their cyber security skills and career.

"We recognise that our customers visit our website in order to find information and resources that will help them tackle particular challenges. A competition is a nice way to thank our clients for their interest in our products, and possibly make their purchasing experience slightly more exciting."

The start date of this competition is 3 November 2014, and all orders received before the closing date of 30 November 2014 will be entered into the draw. Customers are entitled to a single entry only (i.e. multiple orders will not qualify for multiple entries).

The winner will be drawn at random from all entries received, and will be announced 19 December 2014.
