

IT Governance launches training course offer for employers to help boost teams' information security management skills

ELY, UK, November 5, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- IT Governance, the global cyber security training provider, has announced a special offer that allows employers and senior managers to train two members of their team at a significantly reduced rate. Organisations that book any two places on the same December or January training course before the end of November 2014 will receive a 50% discount on the second booking.

The eligible courses include ISO27001 Certified ISMS Lead Implementer, Managing Cyber Security Risk, PCI DSS v3 SAQ Workshop, CISMP, CISSP and more. A full list of the training courses as well as terms and conditions are available at: www.itgovernance.co.uk/autumn-winter-training-catalogue.aspx.

Alan Calder, founder and executive chairman of IT Governance, says, "This offer comes at a perfect time for employers and HR departments. With business slowing down for many companies during December, it's much easier to afford to let two members of your team to undertake training without further disruption. The benefits on the other side are significant – once the busy period starts again, managers will be in a better position to resource their projects drawing on internal skills.

"Effective implementation of a standard like ISO27001 and PCI DSS always requires that more than one member of the team is trained. Our offer allows employers to do that while saving costs."

This training offer will be particularly useful for organisations that are currently implementing or about to start implementation of ISO27001, the international information security standard. It includes the full ISO27001 learning path, i.e. foundation, implementer and auditor levels. The ISO27001 Certified ISMS Lead Implementer is also available live online, offering additional cost-savings.
