

Brandt-Swift Associates Named Asian Investment Fund Administrator of the Year

Brandt-Swift Associates today announced that it was named Asian Investment Fund Administrator of the Year at the inaugural Investment Investor Awards

DOWNTOWN CORE, SINGAPORE,
SINGAPORE, November 10, 2014

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Investment Investor Awards recognize the firms, funds and deals that best survived the turbulent financial and economic conditions in the Investment industry as well as showcase those firms that thrived during the period. This is the first year that Investment Investor has held its poll and over 35,000 votes were cast from practitioners based in over 40 countries around the globe.

Commenting on the award, Helen Pak Hong, Head of Asian Fund Services at Brandt-Swift Associates, said "We are delighted to have won the accolade for Asian Investment Fund Administrator of the Year. This award recognizes the high level of fund administration services we offer to clients across the globe."

Mrs. Pak Hong continued: "There has been a surge in the numbers of Investment funds in recent years due to increased investor demand for exposure to this unique asset class. Our global fund services team is comprised of experienced finance professionals who understand the issues that Investment fund managers face and who can deal with these complex assets, fund structures, and cross-border transactions. Brandt-Swift Associates' business is committed to providing clients with market leading software and a high level of client service as well as to growing and developing its funds services business globally."
