IRVING, TEX., USA, November 10, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Local author, pastor Larry Huch shares the power of blood moons, end-times prophecies in his new book, 4 Blood Moons.

Throughout the centuries, people have looked for signs in the heavens to reveal the will of God. In this compelling new revelation, Pastor Larry Huch combines the promises and prophecy in God's Word, the predictions of NASA, and patterns in history to reveal what lies ahead.

"I wrote the book to especially help Christians understand that biblical prophecy and end-time events don't just contain a 'doom and gloom' message. God has made many promises about the 'last days' that point us to a great outpouring of power and prosperity.

God is using astronomy... [as] one of the most extraordinary signs in all of human history... how this connects to our spiritual and economic destiny is incredible. Our world is about to change.”

We are right in the middle of this 8th set of four blood moons. Every generation has always looked to the heavens for signs. God is using astronomy and these four blood moons are one of the most extraordinary signs in all of human history. Learning about how this connects to our spiritual and economic destiny is incredible," shares Huch. "Our world is about to change."

When asked about what inspired him to write the book, Huch responded, "When NASA began reporting this phenomena last year it caught my attention. I began researching scientific, historical and biblical sources and discovered how rare these signs in the heavens really are. I found out there are many life changing promises that will impact the lives and futures of those who understand how it all connects."

"A very compelling read, Larry Huch will keep you deviated from what is usually expected!" shares Tom Winters, publisher at Winters Publisher Group.
