

Local author Rhonda Bates to publish prose and poetry book

Local author Rhonda Bates has teamed up with Tate Publishing to kick-start the publication process of her new book of poems and prose, The Bible's Song.

HUGO, OKLA.--, UNITED STATES, November 12, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Local author Rhonda Bates to publish prose and poetry book

Seeking to bring the message of love, perseverance, obedience, and relationship, The Bible's Song is a poetic, modern-day book that hosts a collection of poetries and stories from Bible messages.

Harboring the concept of enlightening people about God's message of love for the weak and the broken, Rhonda Bates decided to reveal her heart and make a move on writing up about it. Bates reiterates that The Bible's Song revolves around three main ingredients. Citing that love is the melody of the Bible, focus symbolizes the vision of faith, and that God's vision changes one's perspective.

Rhonda Bates has taken her own trials and tribulations, found quiet with God, and turned that into a wonderfully put together book.

Shannon Lloyd, Acquisitions Editor

"Through The Bible's Song, readers will be able to connect with the Bible... In this modern day life, it helps to know that God hasn't forsaken us," shares Bates.

"Rhonda Bates has taken her own trials and tribulations, found quiet with God, and turned that into a wonderfully put together book," says Shannon Lloyd, Acquisitions Editor for Tate Publishing.

Published by Tate Publishing and Enterprises, the book will be available upon its release through bookstores nationwide, from the publisher at www.tatepublishing.com/bookstore, or by visiting barnesandnoble.com or amazon.com.

Rhonda Bates started writing poetry at a young age. She was an adopted daughter to a Christian family who helped her in paving the way to her faith. Divorced with two sons and one daughter, Bates' numerous tribulations caused her to have trust issues and an identity crisis. She sought solace in God and began putting her thoughts and feeling on paper to express brokenness, struggle, love, and faith. She strongly believes that a daily purposeful relationship with God is necessary to attain a truly happy life.
