

BizBash Launches First Top 100 Events List in San Francisco

San Francisco joins the ranks of top event markets including New York, Chicago, and Los Angeles, producing some of the nation's most influential annual events.

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, USA, November 11, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BizBash, the leading trade media for event professionals, has added a new market to its renowned franchise of Top 100 annual events: San Francisco. The events that make this list are so powerful and prominent that they collectively support and impact local economies, building communities and movements. Whether the attraction is a technology conference, colorful parade, or benefit, headline-grabbing events bring thousands to the Bay Area each year.

"When you look at the collective impact of these annual events, it's clear just how influential live experiences can be, and how San Francisco has grown as a hotbed for groundbreaking gatherings," says BizBash editor in chief Anna Sekula. "The California city is the home of hundreds of prominent conferences and events that represent huge opportunities for building communities, starting debates, and allowing for the exchange of ideas."
