EINPresswire.com/ -- Chicago executive photographer, Matt Ferguson, was chosen by Chicago web design agency, Design & Promote, because the team has grown. Matt Ferguson, Chicago executive photographer invited the team over for a group photoshoot at his studio in West Chicago.

Design & Promote's services include: designing websites, building SEO campaigns and internet marketing strategies for Chicago companies and local Naperville businesses. Each team member brings a unique set of skills that makes the company thrive both internally and for its clients. The team wanted a set of individual and group portraits to add to their professional portfolios.

"Our team is growing. I've known Matt for years and I know that he would create a fun experience for my crew and we'd have something proud to show off in the end," said Bruce Jones, CEO & founder of Design & Promote. (<http://www.designandpromote.com>)

As a Chicago executive photographer, Ferguson has worked with numerous of Fortune 500 companies, advertising agencies and top Chicago magazines. Some his previous work has been with: Boeing, Chicago Cubs, Michigan Avenue Magazine, Chicago Magazine, Michael Jordon Golf and more.

"It was a blast taking photos with my team. And I think Matt captured our team's culture perfectly," said Erica Paczkowski, Social Media Strategist at Design & Promote.

Each team member had his or her pictures taken in different outfits. And then the team came together for a final group shot.

Ferguson's Chicago executive photography can be used for a variety of company projects. Ferguson captures portraits for annual reports, resumes, charity events, speaking engagements, and any digital marketing materials.
