

Delaware author, school counselor Atiya Chase shares enlightening devotional book to readers

Local author Atiya Chase has recently teamed up with Tate Publishing Enterprises to kick-start the publication process of her new book.

NEW CASTLE, DEL. -- , UNITED STATES, December 10, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NEW CASTLE, Del. -- Local author Atiya Chase has recently teamed up with Tate Publishing Enterprises to kick-start the publication process of her new book, title to be announced soon.

Atiya Chase takes readers into a twenty-one-day journey to learning the Word of God and applying it into their lives.

Referencing to her relationship with God and their consistency in reading and understanding the Scriptures in the Bible was what nudged her to create a book that would somehow guide believers into strengthening their faith in Christ.

A spiritual read that will help readers build relationships through consistency.

Shannon Lloyd, Acquisitions Editor

"We are delighted to be partnering with Atiya on this project. She has provided us with such a spiritual read that will help readers build relationships through consistency," shares Shannon Lloyd, Acquisitions Editor for Tate Publishing.

Published by Tate Publishing and Enterprises, the book will be available upon its release, through bookstores nationwide, from the publisher at www.tatepublishing.com/bookstore, or by visiting barnesandnoble.com or amazon.com.

Atiya Chase and her husband, Kenith, live in Delaware with their daughter, Bella Noelle. She works as a School Counselor at Stubbs Elementary School and has a deep passion for writing. Chase and her husband were inspired to write the book because of the realization of their own inconsistencies in their Christian walk. By developing this twenty-one-day devotion for new disciples, Kenith and Atiya believe that the foundation of Christian beliefs will be established and strengthened in the new believer.
