

Flippers Pizzeria Collects Items for Second Harvest Food Bank of Central Florida

The Florida pizzeria continues to give back to the local community.

ORLANDO, FL, USA, December 9, 2014 / EINPresswire.com/ -- For the third consecutive year, Flippers Pizzeria is organizing Second Harvest Food Bank of Central Florida food drives at their Florida pizza restaurants.

According to Kelly Pfister, Marketing Director at Flippers Pizzeria, participation in the food drive is easy. "Guests are encouraged to bring non-perishable food items to participating restaurants and simply drop them in the boxes set up inside."

Pfister said that the drive runs throughout the entire month of December, so guests have plenty of time to gather their donations for this worthy cause.

Second Harvest Food Bank of Central Florida provides food to more than 550 nonprofit feeding programs in the Central Florida area. Donations are stored, organized, and distributed from its huge warehouses, where representatives from various agencies pick up food to help citizens in six Central Florida counties.

The nonprofit organizations that Second Harvest Food Bank of Central Florida assists range from disaster relief agencies, low-income day care centers, and soup kitchens, to homeless shelters, residential treatment programs, and shelters for battered women and children.

"We are so proud to be able to participate in this food drive again for the third year in a row," said Ben Richardson, VP of Operations at Flippers Pizzeria. "Community has always been a part of who we are, and anything we can do to ensure that area families have the food they need this holiday season and throughout the year is very important to us."
