

Johns Creek teacher, author Leslie McKinney puts fun in learning with new educational book

Local author Leslie McKinney has teamed-up with Tate Publishing to work on the publication process of her new book, "Too Much!"

JOHNS CREEK, GA. --, UNITED STATES, December 11, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- JOHNS CREEK, Ga. -- Local author Leslie McKinney has teamed-up with Tate Publishing to work on the publication process of her new book, "Too Much!"

"Too Much!" is a refreshingly fun and comical educational book that teaches students or may serve as a learning tool used by teachers in teaching Homophones.

"I am a former middle school teacher. Seeing my 6th graders use these words incorrectly drove me nuts! I have had thoughts of writing a book on Homophone for years, but it wasn't until I stayed home with my children that I had the time to actually write them," shares McKinney.

A great resource for every teacher to have in the classroom... There are a lot of teaching elements in the book that makes it a wonderful addition to home libraries for parents and children to use.

Acquisitions Editor*

"McKinney gives us a great resource for every teacher to have in the classroom... There are a lot of teaching elements in the book that makes it a wonderful addition to home libraries for parents and children to use," states Aubrey Ventic, Acquisitions Editor for Tate Publishing.

Published by Tate Publishing and Enterprises, the book will be available upon its release, through bookstores nationwide, from the publisher at www.tatepublishing.com/bookstore, or by visiting barnesandnoble.com or amazon.com.

Leslie McKinney worked as a middle school teacher for 15 years focused mainly on teaching Language and Reading. She lives in John Creek, Georgia with her husband, Tim, and her two sons. Leslie now enjoys spending her time visiting schools and sharing the new insights she has as an author.
