

Amazing Journey through the Age of Discovery with Haypi Adventure: Kingdom of Glory

Patch 1.3 of this amazing MMO war strategic game has been submitted to Apple for review

SHANGHAI, SHANGHAI, CHINA, December 10, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The developer Haypi is proud to announce that very soon a new version of Haypi Adventure: Kingdom of Glory will come to world. Patch 1.3 of this amazing MMO war strategic game has been submitted to Apple for review, and will be available for free downloads anytime soon. Haypi Adventure offers fun gameplay and amusing interaction features and activities.

The citizens of the whole ocean realm are whispering about crystals. Those magic objects possess mysterious power, which many aristocrats are pursuing. Folktales say that a small crystal could change the outcome of battles. Yes, a new Crystal System controls those powers in the new version of Haypi Adventure. With crystals, each battle will be completely unique and exciting!

There will be a Crystal Cellar and Crystal system in the new version 1.3 of Haypi Adventure: Kingdom of Glory. The Crystal System is the major new feature, which will make the gameplay exciting like never before. Crystals can be crafted, fused and embedded on heroes and DEF facilities in order to buff them up. To acquire Crystals, players have to build a Quarry - a new type of resource building in the game. A Quarry produces stones for crystal crafting. Now players can have new types of building in their cities, such as Thunderbolt (new DEF facility) and Zeppelin (new offensive unit). The correspondent technologies for those buildings will be available in Tech Center. With such new features, there will be more thrill for the lords who success to overpower the others.

In Patch 1.3, some other optimizations have been made to provide more exciting challenges. For example, Buildings and technologies' level cap has been raised. Modifications have been applied to the Repair costs. DEF facilities' repair costs have been greatly decreased while resource buildings' have been slightly increased.

The gameplay of Haypi Adventure is sophisticated, and provides a really enjoyable experience. In the new version 1.3, several display optimizations have been made to the UI. The Bonus EXP in Training Ground has been adjusted: Firstly, the EXP given by trainers that are legendary or epic combatant heroes has been dramatically increased. The EXP given by trainers that are rare combatant heroes or Expert Mentors has been increased a little. The EXP given by any other trainer has either been slightly increased or remains unchanged. Those changes will help the balance and contribute significantly to the ecosystem of the game.
