

Jennings Smith Associates Launches New Website

Leading private investigation and security consulting firm continues to set industry standards for best practices.

CANTON, CT, USA, December 17, 2014 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Jennings Smith Associates, Inc. (www.jsainvestigations.com), a leading provider of investigative and security solutions to private industry and public institutions, today announced the launch of its new corporate website located at www.jsainvestigations.com.

The site was designed to be user friendly, quick loading, and fully functional when viewed with any modern browser. In keeping with best practices for web accessibility, the new configuration adapts to all current platforms including desktops, laptops, tablets, and smartphones.

"Our goal continues to be providing a positive user experience for current and potential clients, while detailing our entire range of private investigation and security consulting services," said Jennings Smith Associates president and licensee, Bill Smith. He continued, "JSA has had a long-standing commitment to utilizing best practices in our work. The new site provides us with the ability to extend that commitment to our online presence."

While every effort has been made to enhance the accessibility of the information provided by the website, the success of the project will ultimately be decided by its users who are encouraged to provide feedback via the "Contact Us" page located at <http://www.jsainvestigations.com/company/contact-us/>.
