BEVERLY HILLS, FLA. -- , UNITED STATES, December 19, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BEVERLY HILLS, Fla. - Tate Publishing and author Joe Ponds, PhD. recently teamed up to publish Ponds new book, "600 m.o.I."

As a leading publisher in the industry, Tate Publishing thinks "600 m.o.I." will be a great fit for their 2015 line. "Black Americans have served in every war waged by the United States and have a long and distinguished history," shared Stacy Baker, acquisitions editor for the book. "Their contributions to America's military efforts are nothing short of outstanding; despite the fact that up until the Korean War, black military units were largely segregated and very often commanded by white officers. Nevertheless, black Americans played a vital role in the Vietnam War effort despite racial hatred and hostility, racial segregation, and racial discrimination. I am so thrilled to explore this valiant and vibrant history in Pond's fascinating book 'The 600 m.o.I.'"
