

1000Bulbs.com Becomes First Online-Only Retailer to Supply Cree® LED Bulbs

1000Bulbs.com is proud to be named first authorized online-only store to carry Standard A-Type and Reflector LED light bulbs from Cree, Inc.

GARLAND, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, December 19, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Internet lighting retailer 1000Bulbs.com is proud to be named the first authorized online-only store to carry Standard A-Type and Reflector LED light bulbs from Cree, Inc. Customers will now be able to shop Cree's extensive line of LED products at 1000Bulbs.com, including their line of Cree® LED Bulbs as well as their assortment of commercial LED downlights and troffers.

Cree is a highly influential, top-tier LED lighting company. We're honored to be the first authorized online-only distributor to carry a wide range of their LED light bulbs.

Kim Pedersen

Currently, Cree® LED lighting can be found in countless products all over the world. After expanding to the indoor lighting market in 2008, Cree continues to lead the market in the advancement and development of LED lighting technology, and in just one year the Cree LED Bulb has become the best-selling LED Bulb in America.

"Cree is a highly influential, top-tier LED lighting company. We're honored to be the first authorized online-only distributor to carry a wide range of their LED light bulbs," said 1000Bulbs.com CEO Kim Pedersen. "Not only does this partnership strengthen our relationship with Cree, but it continues to position 1000Bulbs as a leading online lighting retailer."

1000Bulbs.com customers will be able to purchase the 3-Way Cree LED Bulb, which offers three distinct light levels while using only 3, 8 and 18 watts in a standard A21 base. Also available are Cree's line of TW Series Cree LED Bulbs, which produce the industry's highest Color Rendering Index (CRI) that makes colors appear "true and natural" similar to that of incandescent light or sunlight. These bulbs will be joined by Cree's line of BR30 and PAR38 Reflector LED bulbs and A-Type LED light bulbs. There are no quantity limits on Cree products a consumer can order and all products are shipped directly to their home, office or job site.
