-- The office will be managed by Kory Stafford, founder of Simply Quick. The Dallas location becomes the fifth branch of WBL following the launch of branches in Manhattan, New York; Syosset, Long Island; Newington, Connecticut; and Lodi, New Jersey.

"We look forward to working with Kory and his staff who bring extensive customer service and management experience to WBL," said Alex Gemici, Managing Director of World Business Lenders. "We look forward to growing our Dallas branch under Kory's leadership."

The lender remains committed to small business owners in need of fast, hassle-free lending to jump-start their business, acquire more capital or work through financial difficulties. These loan programs remain a bright spot for businesses that are turned down by the bank.

Kory Stafford is proud to be managing the branch, and is a veteran of the lending industry with over twenty years of experience. He is also the founder and manager of several successful finance firms. Prior to founding Simply Quick Business Loans in 2011, Stafford started Alpha Mortgage USA, which became a large regional lender. Between 1997 and 2007, Stafford gained recognition as a finance expert while hosting a mortgage and finance radio talk show broadcast throughout the Southern United States on ABC Radio Network's Newstalk 820 WBAP.

"I am proud to be joining WBL. WBL's innovative financing products and its customer service, as well as its vision, position WBL to become the top small business lender in the U.S.," said Stafford
