SAN DIEGO, CALIF. --, UNITED STATES, December 31, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SAN DIEGO, Calif. -- Local author Rachel Daigh has partnered with Tate Publishing to kick-start the publication process of her new book "When Shamrocks Smile".

A poem that tells a tale of adventure, courage, dedication, and faith "When Shamrocks Smile" is an illustrative children's book of a little ship's determination to survive the rough seas.

"I wrote 'When Shamrocks Smile' on Saint Patrick's day about eight years ago... [It] was a poem that I wrote as a gift for my mother. Things were a bit rough for us financially at the time and I wanted to write her something that would lift her spirits and remind both of us to remain strong in our faith," shares Rachel on the inspiration behind the book.

“

It is an adorable little book about a big adventure and the love and loyalty that a little ship has for her crew.

Acquisitions Editor*

"When Shamrocks Smile" is an adventure-packed book for kids that promote faith strengthening, courage and never giving up. It is an adorable little book about a big adventure and the love and loyalty that a little ship has for her crew," states Mireille Mistkowski, Acquisitions Editor for Tate Publishing.

Published by Tate Publishing and Enterprises, the book will be available upon its release, through bookstores nationwide, from the publisher at www.tatepublishing.com/bookstore, or by visiting barnesandnoble.com or amazon.com.

Rachel Daigh's passion for writing started at a young age. While studying Archaeology in college, one of her poems entitled, "A Recollection of Her Blues" was selected for the college's yearly Honors Creative Writing publication. In 2006, a book of Rachel's poetry "Angst For The Memories" was published and released. She was also featured as Artist of the Month in her home town of Glendale Arizona that same year. When Shamrocks Smile, is Rachel's first published children's book. When she's not writing, Rachel is seen supporting animal rights and marine conservations or spending time with her two Siberian Huskies.
