ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --, UNITED STATES, December 31, 2014 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. -- Local author Haley Lambert has recently teamed up with Tate Publishing to kick-start the publication process of her book "Fishy Tales".

"Fishy Tales" is an inventive and empowering children's book about Dot the sea turtle and the numerous fun adventures she has with her friends under the sea.

"I started creating the characters of this children's book about two years ago. I wanted to submit my book at a local State of New Mexico English Expo; my teacher encouraged me to submit another one as I did the year before in my 10th grade year. .. It was important I get these characters exactly like I could see them in my story. The story came first, and then I drew the characters to match their personalities," shares Lambert.

Fishy Tales will bring out the child in you and will give you values you'd want to teach your kids.

Jeff Foster, Acquisitions Editor

Fishy Tales will bring out the child in you and will give you values you'd want to teach your kids."

Lambert feels equally delighted to be teaming up with Tate. "I wanted a Christian Publisher that was honest, forthright and could see my vision as an illustrator and author. I want to touch the hearts of many children and they are an amazing publishing company that can reach the masses," she shares.
