

Little Rock, Arkansas REALTOR® Lesa Poe Earns Military Relocation Professional (MRP) Certification

Lesa Poe Has A Keen Sense Of The Local Market, Knows Property Values, Appreciation Of The Market, And How To Gain The Best Exposure For Her Clients' Property

LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS, USA, January 3, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lesa Poe is one of the top residential Real Estate Agents in Arkansas and has added the MRP designation to her long list of accomplishments. "I am very thankful for our Military Service Members" she says, "I work with a lot of Military families because I am so close to Little Rock Air Force Base, and I am very appreciative of their tremendous sacrifices. My husband was in the Navy and served two tours in Vietnam and my oldest son was also in the Navy. It's hard to imagine what they go through when they're away from home and in danger, protecting us and our freedoms, and there's nothing more gratifying than to help Military families buy a home when their loved ones come back from a tour of duty."

Lesa was born and raised in Arkansas and currently lives in Cabot. Prior to becoming a Real Estate Agent, she worked in marketing for 15 years, yet always dreamed of having her own business. She currently works at RE/MAX Real Estate Connection as an independent agent.

Lesa describes Cabot, a suburb of Little Rock, as the ideal place for families to live because it is a friendly, caring community. "We have fabulous schools" she says, "and people here are very supportive of one another. There's something for everyone. To the south, we're just minutes away from the big city and to the north, we're minutes from a gorgeous lake, boating, camping, and fishing."

Little Rock offers a vibrant nightlife, world-class attractions such as the Clinton Presidential Center, The Arkansas Art Museum and the Arkansas Symphony Orchestra and a booming dining scene with the best restaurants serving up dishes from around the globe.

Lesa loves the outdoors and being on the lake, camping, relaxing and getting away from the hustle and bustle of life. She is a huge Razorback fan and enjoys tailgating parties with her family and friends. "It's a family tradition" she says, "My parents took us when we were young, my husband and I took our two sons, and now we all take the grandchildren. We have a great time!"

Lesa and her husband always had their hands in Real Estate, so it was a natural transition for her to get into Real Estate.

"I love to help people" Lesa says, "and with all of my background experience in Real Estate and Marketing, it just worked out perfectly. I was thrilled when the National Association of Realtors offered the Military Relocation Professional (MRP) course because I want to make sure that I'm doing everything I can to represent our Military families in the best way that I can."

Lesa Poe proudly serves the Little Rock, Arkansas Military community which surrounds Little Rock Air Force Base <http://www.littlerock.af.mil/>.

As a testimony to Lesa's character and personality, one of her clients, the Kozlowski family – who had relocated to Arkansas from New Jersey – said: "First let me just say what a GREAT realtor Lesa Poe is. We are Military and in 2007 received orders to move to Little Rock Air Force Base. After deciding to live in Cabot because of the school district, we sent Lesa the criteria for our new home and she started searching right away. She not only searched for houses but sent us an informational welcome packet on Cabot and researched local dog kennels for us. When we arrived in Cabot, Lesa took us out every day for a week until we found the house for us. Unfortunately, the inspector found that house to have major problems and we had to search for another home. Lesa immediately took us to look at several more homes and never once acted like it was a chore. She never showed us houses that were out of our price range or houses that were only listed through her or her company. When we finally did settle on a house, Lesa was there for everything from inspections to final walk through to closing. She even helped us find a good lender. Our experience with Lesa was top notch...she went above and beyond for us. She made us feel that we were the only people she was working with and gave us everything we needed to make a good decision. I would recommend her to anyone who is looking to buy or sell a house. She is a great realtor and a great person."
