BluePay Acquires CDI Technology Corp., An Integrated E-Commerce Solution Provider for ERP Systems

BluePay, is pleased to announce the acquisition of CDI Technology Corp., a B2B and B2C e-commerce and payment systems integrator.

NAPERVILLE, IL, USA, January 6, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Chicago-based B2B payments provider, BluePay, is pleased to announce the acquisition of CDI Technology Corp., a B2B and B2C e-commerce and payment systems integrator with over 20 years of experience, headquartered in Lombard, Illinois. CDI provides state-of-the-art e-commerce software and payment solutions within ERP systems, such as Oracle JD Edwards and SAP.

The acquisition is a win-win for both companies. BluePay will acquire enterprise merchants that are already pre-integrated into the popular ERP systems, as well as gain top-tiered talent with many years of experience managing B2B and B2C integrations. Additionally, CDI Customers will greatly benefit from BluePay's newly advanced end-to-end secure payment processing system, the first of its kind in the payments industry.

"We are extremely excited to welcome Suhas Gosavi and the CDI team to BluePay. They are a leading system integrator in the Oracle and SAP markets, and will provide the critical component as we execute our vision of becoming a leader in B2B e-commerce," commented John Rante, CEO at BluePay.

"Our mission is to make it simple for our enterprise merchants to conduct business with their customers and suppliers via our e-commerce solutions. Combining our forces with BluePay demonstrates our commitment to that mission," stated Suhas Gosavi, President and CEO at CDI. "We are very excited about the resources and expertise that BluePay provides, and we look forward to the continued growth of our organizations."
