headbands on Oneupbands.com due to a new feature they've added to their website. They believe this idea is exclusive to their company!

One Up Bands has always offered in-house, custom headbands and other great products, but now you can actually create your own custom headband design at prices that are no higher than their competitors' stock designs! Their non-slip headbands offer both comfort and functionality for the most avid of athletes as well as being tailored to the mom on the go.

Kirk Morris, owner of One Up Bands, said, "We're very excited about our new customizing feature. Now, people with a little creativity can show off their talents by creating a one-of-a-kind piece while keeping the cost at a great, affordable price point. It's a win/win for both our company and our customers".

Customers who have utilized this new customized feature have commented on how easy and fun it was to create their own headbands.

About Oneupbands.com - - - One Up Bands was started in 2012. Our headbands, while being functional and non-slip, are also highly fashionable. We offer over 1000 trendy and classic designs in an array of popular colors, all at a reasonable price. We also have a full, in-house graphic art department if designing a headband is not your "thing". Best of all, we will always offer a "no minimum" policy to our customers so that everyone can take part in owning one of the coolest, custom products that One Up Bands has to offer! We continue to raise the bar and set the pace with the most unique collection of women's Non-slip Headbands, Hair Ties, Men's/Women's Cross-fit Headbands and, just recently, a line of custom Tech Toys! We're known for our quick turn-around time and incredible customer service, and our products are all made in the USA.
