

Breakthrough Money Coach Susan Crutcher of Bridging Heart & Business to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

KEMBLE, ONTARIO, CANADA, January 26, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- How can we follow our heart to do what we're passionate about and make money doing it to have the lifestyle we want?

According to Breakthrough Money Coach Susan Crutcher, there are ways to harness the engine and energy of money so you can, quite predictably, make as much money as you want. Conventional business practices do not hold the solutions to your money problems; the solutions lie in unconventional wisdom, personal experience and perception.

Susan is the founder of Bridging Heart & Business, a coaching practice dedicated to helping successful entrepreneurs who are stuck at a plateau find unique solutions to catapult their business to the next level.

“The majority of people coming to me are at their wit’s end, unable to find a solution,” says Susan. “Quite often they come to me with a specific problem, but there’s always something below the surface. People get caught in the loop where they can’t change. That’s where I come in. If you’re willing to stop doing what isn’t working and start doing what does, I can help.”

As a life-long entrepreneur and owner of two businesses for the past 15 years, Susan speaks from experience. Several years ago one of her businesses had reached a financial plateau. No matter what she did or tried, nothing could make it move past that plateau. She was about to throw in the towel when she made a decision, a decision that changed the business and her lifestyle. Revenue doubled. The next year revenue tripled and she had reduced her hours to one day a week. And her business is currently on track to quadruple its financial plateau.

Susan’s philosophy is based on developing what she describes as our Four Foundational Freedoms: fitness and health; faith and spirituality; family, friends and relationships; and finances.

“It doesn’t matter which door the client enters through, all these ideas are interwoven and interconnected. If you affect one, you affect all,” says Susan. “Life is 3-D. It’s dynamic and constantly changing. If people are not attuned to that, their business will not create the lifestyle they dreamed of when they started it.”

Susan says she empowers her clients to create a new vision, identifying unique, creative ideas to grow their business that are as individual as each person.

“Let’s get started now,” says Susan. “Let’s work together so you can live the life you are destined for instead of the life you’ve had to settle for.”

CUTV News Radio will feature Susan Crutcher in an interview with Doug Llewelyn on January 28th at 12pm EST.
