Guardian Mortgage has been named the top company for fundraising for TMBA PAC in 2014

PLANO, TX, USA, January 30, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In a recent announcement by the Texas Mortgage Bankers Association (TMBA), Guardian Mortgage has been named the top company for fundraising contribution support of the TMBA PAC for 2014.

"Much like Guardian Mortgage, the TMBA has long focused its efforts on education and preparing the next generation of leaders for the mortgage industry," said Cari McCue, Executive Vice President and Chief Operations Officer for Guardian Mortgage. "The work they perform is imperative and something everyone at Guardian believes in, which is why all of our colleagues worked to raise as much money for the cause as we could in 2014."

Through their consistent efforts and creative activities held throughout the year, Guardian Mortgage raised $13,431 in 2014 for the TMBA PAC—the most money raised by any contributing company. Some of GMC's fundraising activities included a PAC week in June, casual dress in exchange for an individual donation, lunch and breakfast at work, a hot cocoa cart in the office, cookies and milk cart in the office and a raffle for paid time off from work. Anisa Johnson, Vice President of Marketing and Communications at Guardian, extends her dedication to TMBA by also serving on the PAC committee for the past 2 years.

The TMBA represents its members in state legislative hearings and with regulatory agencies. While working on regulatory issues, the TMBA also aims to meet the educational needs of its members by providing publications and developmental instructional courses.
