

Guardian Mortgage Celebrates 50 Years of Serving Mortgage Needs

Guardian Mortgage is proud to celebrate their 50th anniversary serving the mortgage needs of generations

PLANO, TEXAS, USA, February 4, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Guardian Mortgage is proud to celebrate their 50th anniversary serving the mortgage needs of generations in Texas and Michigan—an achievement reached by few in the mortgage industry.

"Our 50th anniversary is a landmark, both personally and professionally, for many of us at Guardian Mortgage," says Marcia Phillips, Chief Executive Officer of Guardian Mortgage. "This milestone is a testament to the principles upon which Jack D. Sweet founded our company half a century ago and represents the success of our company's goal to educate customers on mortgage processes while building long-standing relationships."

To mark this momentous occasion, Guardian Mortgage will host an event with the Dallas Chamber of Commerce on February 5 at their Richardson, Texas office. The Dallas Chamber of Commerce will present Guardian Mortgage with an accolade to acknowledge their milestone and celebrate the achievement reached by the collective efforts of their Texas and Michigan offices.

"Being successful is the goal of every business," says Marcus McCue, Executive Vice President and Chief Business Development Officer for Guardian Mortgage. "However, at Guardian Mortgage, we gauge our success on our referrals and our ongoing relationships with generations of families that continue to turn to Guardian for their mortgage needs. Having so many of our current customers return and refer us to their friends, colleagues and children is a measurable marker for our long-term business success."

"Guardian Mortgage would like to thank all our customers for the opportunity to serve them for the past 50 years. We look forward to building stronger relationships and serving a new generation of consumers for many years to come."
