With more and more travellers looking to book adventure activities in Greece, Agreekadventure.com helps showcase the large variety of different excursions in Greece. Tourists are then able to make better decisions when it comes to booking their trip with third party travel agents.

The blog differentiates itself from other travel blogs by offering different experiences and activities every single day. The experiences shared are from the site founders, readers of the site and activity providers from Greece.

Chris and Mary, the founders of AGreekAdventure have a wealth of travel experience. When you combine this with; tourists who want to share their greek adventures and experienced activity providers from Greece, you create an exceptional online resource for Greek adventures.

The co-founder of agreekadventure.com Chris Vassilopoulos explains; “We are not a travel agent, we just love Greece and adventure travel. We wanted a place to share our experiences and knowledge with others, so we developed AGreekAdventure. We love excursions, nature, healthy life, ecotourism, outdoor and adventure activities, we are constantly thirsty for life experiences, we want to experience the old and mysterious, plus the new and adventurous.”

Agreekadventure.com receives emails from tourists every day asking for information about where to go in Greece or best places for outdoor activities. The site has therefore developed a large list of activities; ensuring future travellers get the best Greek experience possible.

The site is currently developing a range of off Greek adventure travel so be sure to check out some of their other destinations and definitely subscribe to the newsletter.
