

TradeTec Welcomes New Designer Patrick Rudlang to join their Award Winning Trade Show Exhibit Team

Patrick Rudlang has joined the trade show booth company in Chicago as an Exhibit Designer on TradeTec's Trade Show Exhibits and displays.

LOMBARD, IL, USA, February 9, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TradeTec Skyline hired a new Exhibit and Graphic Designer at their trade show booth company in Chicago. Patrick Rudlang recently joined the company's award-winning Trade Show Exhibit and Design team where he has immediately begun working on client projects and has proven to be talented at designing trade show displays in Chicago.

Rudlang is a graduate of Bemidji State University in Minnesota, where he graduated Magna Cum Laude. Rudlang obtained a Bachelor of Arts in Exhibit and Architecture Design with an emphasis in exhibit and digital design. Bemidji State is one of the only universities in the country to offer a 4-year degree in Exhibit and Architecture Design.

"We are thrilled to have Patrick join our design team. He has hit the ground running and proven his ability to design quality exhibits that meet our clients' expectations. We've been extremely impressed with his abilities and look forward to seeing many more of his designs in the future," said Troy Trice, President of TradeTec Skyline (www.ttchicago.com).

Rudlang is a Minnesota native, having been born and raised in the state with his four siblings. His life-long interests and talents in design and photography led to his educational and career choice, which were further encouraged by TradeTec's Creative Director, Chris Ybarra. Ybarra and Rudlang met in March 2014 at the Exhibitor Show in Las Vegas and maintained contact, eventually leading to Rudlang moving to Illinois and joining the TradeTec team upon graduation.

Outside of the office, Rudlang spends his time outdoors keeping his photography skills sharp and enjoys snowboarding and other outdoor activities. He is also a professional ballroom dancer, competing in tournaments throughout the Midwest and teaching classes.

Patrick Rudlang has joined the trade show booth company in Chicago as an Exhibit Designer on TradeTec's Trade Show Exhibits and displays.

Rudlang is eager to explore his new career, pushing the boundaries of design to create unique exhibits for TradeTec's many clients. He has plans to further his education in order to improve his skills and craftsmanship.
