LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, USA, February 10, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- 55Printing.com, which was founded in 2009 has become an essential part of every local USA business sector by providing fast, reliable and high-quality design, printing products and cheap every door direct mail.

55Printing.com recently launched a program that allows any user to download a pre-designed template that can be customized to their needs, in multiple card sizes.

During a recent trade show, the company spokesperson for 55Printing.com was quoted as saying, "We want to make it as easy and affordable as possible for our customers to use our services. Plus, we know that once they use our cheap every day direct door mail, they will see results and we will gain a lifelong client!"

Statistics are staggering, indicating that most consumers are weary about buying from a printing company that they have never worked with before, but according to many sources 55Printing.com has a stellar (5 star rating by ResellersRatings) reputation for quality and service. Paul Larisay , a client of 55Printing.com, was quoted as saying, "I've been wrestling with printers now for over 24 years with my business, and these gloss promo postcards are the best job I've ever seen. Also appreciate your truly experienced hand. I could tell with my questions, and the ease with which you allowed me to make changes that you had a lot of hands on experience with printing and software, and can hardly believe a printer has someone with that much experience "available" for me to work with. Again, thanks so much for being "honorable" people at what you do. It's truly much appreciated."

The Every Door Direct Mail (EDDM) postcards are an integral part of most marketing plans and should always be considered as a major channel to acquire new customers.

The Every Door Direct Mail system by USPS is not new anymore and research has been done by many already!
