

Long Island Comic Stevie GB To Perform In Show Featuring True Stories With A Twist

Stevie GB brings the funny through authenticity in a show dedicated to true personal experiences, but not entirely.

SMITHTOWN, NY, UNITED STATES, February 21, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Award-winning stand-up comic Stevie GB, a regular in the Long Island Comedy Festival and the New York comedy scene, will bring his unique original style of comedy and one of his own true stories to the line-up of performers in the monthly storytelling show \(mostly\) TRUE THINGS on Saturday February 28 2015 at 7 pm, at Performing Arts Studio of New York, 224 E. Main St., Port Jefferson, NY. Tickets are $10. For reservations call 631-366-4265. Buy tickets online at Brown Paper Tickets.

Stevie GB has performed at The Borgata, Catch a Rising Star, The Paramount, as well as countless other venues with comedy legends like Louie Anderson, Kevin Meaney, Rob Schneider, Kevin Pollak, Bobby Collins and others. His production of "Groucho: A Life In Revue" - about the life of comedy legend Groucho Marx - was featured on the cover of Newsday Section 2 and received rave reviews across Long Island. He won the award for Best Actor at the 2012 Luminaries for his role in the short film Suffocating in Suburbia, and is a popular emcee and speaker for a wide range of events and fund-raisers. For Steve GB, who recently performed his most recent one-man show "Welcome To Lawn Guyland" authenticity is one cornerstone of his success as a writer and performer. "The most important component is honesty. I write from a place of truth, no matter how painful it might be.

If I don't believe what I am saying, how can I expect the audience to believe it? That and coffee." Being funny started out as a kind of survival skill him, having been "the skinniest kid with glasses and acne" who learned that "making the bullies laugh stopped them from beating me up." Even with this super-power to disarm the bad guys and a lifetime making a study of the art of comedy, it took him to age 33 to get up on stage - on a dare from a co-worker - where he felt an immediate sense of belonging.

Created by host Jude Treder-Wolff, a writer/performer and creative arts psychotherapist who founded Lifestage, Inc with her husband Nicholas Wolf, (mostly) TRUE THINGS show features 4 storytellers sharing an 8-minute story, without notes, and one of those stories will be absolutely true. The other 3 might be entirely fabricated or a true narrative peppered with little white lies. After the stories the audience can question the storytellers, then vote for the nothing-but-the-truth teller. Winners get a prize and the whole truth comes out about all the stories. The show is produced by Lifestage, Inc.
