

LivingWell Health Clubs Launch Online Pamper and Gym Accessories Shop

LivingWell Health Clubs have recently launched their new online store that now allows anyone to buy gym accessories and pamper experiences online.

WATFORD, LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, February 23, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LivingWell Health Clubs are already well known for offering the ultimate gym experience. Their blend of fitness and pampering offers the perfect motivation for amateur and seasoned gym goers.

Over the past twelve months LivingWell Health Clubs have succeeded where other well being establishments have failed. They have managed to make their health clubs welcoming, not only to professional athletes but to those stepping into a gym for the very first time.

They do this by offering a personalised fitness service tailored to the individual while ensuring their approach never patronises, or makes new members feel like outsiders.

Now they have taken their model a step further by introducing an online shop for members and no members allowing all visitors to the website access to a range of products and pamper experiences.

Shop Online for Pamper Days and Membership

The shop, already popular with those in the know, offers a wide selection for those who love all LivingWell has to offer, from complete pamper days to fitness equipment to use at home.

One member of LivingWell, Justin Phillips, has already been shopping in the online store and is delighted with the whole premise, he said, "I have been a member of LivingWell Health Clubs for many years as all the amenities give me the incentive I need to stay fit. I love being able to choose between having a swim or doing weights, while I don't mind admitting that I'm quite a regular in the sauna too. I have been asking my wife to join me for a while but she thinks it's all about exercise and she has enough in her job as a gardener, I'm hoping that after she enjoys the pamper day I bought her online she'll sign up to become a member."

The LivingWell online shop offers gym accessories such as Yoga mats, heart rate monitors and medicine balls alongside massage and use of all the facilities for a day. Non-members can also buy gym membership for their local LivingWell Health Club online too.
