

Free webinar series helps businesses around the world get cyber secure

ELY , UK, February 25, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- IT Governance, the global provider of cyber security expertise, has launched a series of free webinars to help businesses in different parts of the world improve their cyber security posture while adhering to regional legislation.

The webinars will take place in March 2015 and are available in the following regions:

US - Wednesday, March 18, 2015 2:00 pm - 3:00 pm EDT
www.itgovernanceusa.com/webinars.aspx

Europe - Thursday, 19 March, 2015 4:00 pm - 5:00 pm CET
www.itgovernance.eu/t-webinars.aspx

Asia-Pacific - Friday, 20 March, 2015 4:00 pm - 5:00 pm WST
www.itgovernance.asia/t-webinars.aspx

With cyber attacks and data breaches soaring on a global scale, businesses are under pressure to improve their cyber security defences while facing stricter government requirements and contractual obligations.

Led by global cyber security authority and IT Governance founder, Alan Calder, these webinars will cover critical issues, including:

- The current cyber threat – understand the risk that insufficient processes, inadequate technology, malicious hackers and a lack of staff awareness pose to your business, with case studies of recent high-profile data breaches.
- Regional laws and legislation – proposed US Legislation and various state data breach notification laws; proposed EU legislation; current data protection laws in Hong Kong, Australia, Singapore and the Philippines.
- International standards – discover how implementing the internationally recognised cyber security standard, ISO 27001, will help get your business cyber secure while supporting your adherence to regional legislation.
