

Frank J. Peluso Named Senior VP of Construction for RJB Contracting

RJB Contracting, Inc. announces the appointment of construction industry veteran Frank Peluso as Senior Vice President of Construction.

SPRING CITY, PENN., USA, February 26, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- RJB Contracting, a full-service commercial and industrial contracting company, has recruited construction and project management specialist Frank J. Peluso to the position of Vice President of Construction.

Peluso brings more than 35 years of construction, project management and facilities management experience to RJB Contracting. With a strong background in engineering and architectural analysis, Peluso has led construction departments for several prominent contracting companies nationwide. He has played an integral role in the completion of hundreds of retail and commercial construction projects across the US.

A New York City native currently residing in New Jersey, Peluso oversaw construction of the first LEED certified multistory office tower in Atlantic City, New Jersey. He maintains certifications in OSHA 30 and the American Heart Association's basic life support for the professional rescuer. He also serves as fire police captain of his local volunteer fire department.

RJB Contracting President Ron Bacskai says Peluso is a natural fit for the company.

"Frank brings a maturity and depth to our construction division that will consistently enable RJB to turn over complex projects on time and on budget," Bacskai says. "He completely understands our 'built-on-integrity' philosophy, and I am excited to see the positive contributions he will bring to the RJB brand."

Founded in 1992, RJB Contracting Inc. serves its customers through two different divisions: the General Construction and Construction Management Division, and the Facilities Maintenance

Division.

Through the General Construction and Construction Management Division, RJB Contracting provides capital improvements in the commercial and industrial space market. Clients include large “bog box” retailers like Target and Home Depot, and fast casual restaurants like Chipotle. The construction division works with many of the same clients on a repeat basis, performing construction management, roll-outs, remodels, build-ups and build-outs.

The RJB Facilities Maintenance Division performs facility maintenance services for many of its “big box” clients and fast casual/quick serve restaurants across the U.S. The RJB Facilities Management Division services single trade work orders across the U.S. to many Fortune 500 clients, including installation of coating systems, plumbing, electrical, carpentry, and general contracting.

RJB Contracting welcomes retail and restaurant inquiries and RFPs. For more information, visit the RJB Contracting website, email info@rjbcontracting.net, or call 800.591.6090.

About RJB Contracting:

For more than 25 years, RJB Contracting has been providing capital improvements for large and small businesses in the commercial and industrial markets, including large retailers and restaurants. RJB President Ron Bacskai has successfully established a reputation for integrity and trust in the construction industry by maintaining high standards, meticulous attention to detail and consistent quality at a fair price.

RJB Contracting began as a residential company back in the early 1990s before transitioning to the commercial market in 1995. With more than 20 years in the retail and restaurant industries, Bacskai and his team have built an extensive line of services to meet the demands of large national merchants. Today RJB completes several hundred large coatings projects and dozens of remodel and mid sized construction projects annually. Thanks to our full service facilities management division, RJB performs maintenance services for many large big box clients and restaurants across the U.S. 24/7, 364 days per year.
