

San Jose's Soul Warrior Adventures Adds Bilingual Programs To Its Experiential Wilderness Courses

More than ever, today's youth and families are losing the contact with the natural environment that is potentially beneficial for their health and well-being.

SAN JOSE, CA, USA, February 26, 2015 / EINPresswire.com/ -- San Jose, CA based Soul Warrior Adventures Company is excited to provide a paradigm shift in traditional education by providing the South Bay Area with new comprehensive outdoor learning opportunities for low-income families, urban youth and culturally diverse communities.

Soul Warrior Adventures Company will be the first in leading the Bay Area and the United States in offering outdoor education programs specifically for both Spanish and English speaking communicates.

Cultural Solidarity & Healing Generations

The Company will launch this summer on June 6th, 2015 with its first Kids' under age 12 wilderness survival programs. They will also offer youth-adult survival clinics, family wellness programs, rites of passage and youth cultural solidarity-peace and leadership conferences.

Soul Warrior Adventures is working closely with Bay Area small business to invest in low-income communities by providing scholarships to allow access to underserved communities for low-income urban kids, youth and families. Soul Warrior Adventures will also donate 1% of its revenue to www.onepercentfortheplanet.org

Soul Warrior Adventures Company is a proud company affiliate with Santa Cruz, CA based Company www.adventureout.com. Soul Warrior Adventures will also be working in partnership with www.tribalwisdomacademy.com
