

No Complaints About The Recovering Economy at SJN Sales

SJN Sales reviews 2014 results: The economic recovery is real, it's lasting and it's leading to new hiring.

SCOTTSDALE, AZ, USA, February 27, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SJN Sales reviews our 2014 numbers with the world, and they're surprising. Our teams have impacted the growth of a record number of clients. SJN Sales represented firms in 14 business services categories, 5 SaaS providers and 11 software and application development companies, last year alone.

SJN Sales' only complaint about this recovery is that there are so many options for firms to explore. In 2014 we found ourselves making the case for targeted, project-based outsourced sales to a record number of prospective clients too.

So, what does this add up to? SJN Sales' projections for 2015 show strength in the market for business services, particularly in retail, energy, and health care sectors.
