

Tesla Model S Goes on the Auction Block at Local Trash For Peace Fund Raiser

Local Publisher Launches Sustainable Savings Coupon Book with a Fund Raiser for Trash For Peace-Featuring An Auction for A 3 Hour Chauffeured Tesla/Dinner Tour

PORTLAND, OREGON, USA, March 4, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Local sustainable event and new sustainable savings coupon book helps non-profit Trash For Peace expand their visibility and programs with local kids. Trash For Peace, which teaches urban kids about recycling and healthy eating, will be featured at a fundraiser and publishing event at German-influenced gourmet cuisine Slide Inn Restaurant on March 27, 2015 from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. The event, which is free to the public, will be MC'd by popular local comedian Curtis Cook and include door prizes, free coupon books, an old school DJ in the Jade lounge and opportunities to donate directly to Trash For Peace.

Publisher, Raymond F. Quinton said, "I love what Trash For Peace does and what they stand for. They give urban kids a chance to have some hands on involvement with recycling and sustainability, and they get to see how to grow that involvement into business opportunities."

The event, sponsored by LoanStar Home

Lending and Global Marketing Concepts, will feature free copies of the new Sustainable Savings coupon book and be highlighted with an exclusive auction for a Tesla Model S 3 Hour Chauffeured Dinner tour--as well as door prizes, from local sustainability focused businesses.

Trash For Peace, founded by Executive Director Laura Kuchner, works with schools to teach kids how to build recycling bins from recycled materials, teaches kids zero waste, healthy cooking techniques, and has plans to expand their coffee roasting project with a solar roaster to teach youths how to run a
