New American Funding, announced today that they were ranked 9th largest Orange County based minority-owned business by the Orange County

TUSTIN, CA, USA, March 10, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- New American Funding, a national mortgage banker, announced today that they were ranked 9th largest Orange County based minority-owned business in revenue by the Orange County Business Journal. The complete list includes 68 companies, each at least 51% owned by a minority. The list of minority-owned companies will appear in both the publication's current issue as well as their 2016 Book of Lists.

New American Funding's President, Patty Arvielo, is of Hispanic descent and qualifies the company as minority-owned.

"We're proud to be recognized for this achievement. We have a great staff here and being included in this top business list is a sign of all the hard work we do," said Arvielo.

Patty Arvielo also formed a Latino Focus Committee, which tailors lending services to Hispanic markets. The committee participates in community volunteer work and holds educational events such as their recent seminar Hispenial Generation: Technology and Marketing.

"It's not just about the bottom line for us, we're a family here, so it's all about helping as many people as we can," adds Arvielo.
