

IT Governance to participate at The Future of Cyber Security 2015 Conference in London

ELY, UK, March 12, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- IT Governance, the global cyber security services provider, is pleased to announce that it will exhibit at The Future of Cyber Security 2015 Conference in London on 19 March.

Organised by the IMM Group, The Future of Cyber Security 2015 is a national cyber security conference that focuses on how organisations can protect themselves, customers, employees and citizens.

The Future of Cyber Security 2015 will present solutions to the problems facing an increasingly connected and globalised business world.

The event features a unique programme that allows delegates to choose the topics that interest them most.

Three sessions in the morning will deliver top-level intelligence briefings on the UK's Cyber Security Strategy. These sessions will be structured in a practical way that helps delegates to enhance their organisations' cyber security strategies.

The IT Governance team will be on hand to provide conference delegates with expert advice on compliance with the UK Cyber Essentials scheme, ISO 27001 implementation and cyber security training.
