

Linda Shafer Speaks to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

BRAINTREE, MASSACHUSETTS, USA, March 23, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- So many women's lives have come to a stand still as they try to understand who they are, what their purpose is in life and how they fit in their families, communities and society in general.

Linda Shafer, founder of the public speaking and private life coaching practice Linda Shafer Speaks, is dedicated to inspiring women to find their voice and embrace their worth.

"I want women to find their voice and not be in the 50s when they find it. That's my passion," says Linda. "Your voice matters and you have worth beyond measure."

In addition to public speaking and private coaching, Linda conducts the following workshops: Finding Your Voice and Embracing Your Worth; Loving Yourself In Relationships; Taming Your Gremlins; Conflict Resolution; Work/Life Balance; Living Your Life Purpose; and Healing Abuse.

By sharing her vulnerability in the telling of her story, Linda creates an environment where women find a safe space to share their fears and anxieties. She gives them that ray of hope that says life can be different, more enjoyable and more fulfilling.

"I see women who are scared, tired and stuck," says Linda. "Their faces look to me with a longing for change and that's why I share my story. I have created a whole new life for myself and let go of old beliefs and patterns."

"Through her encouragement and skills as life coach, I was able to step into my power and self worth in a way that has set my life into a belief that anything is possible," says a former client named
