

LivingWell Are Giving Away Free Digital Fuji Cameras

LivingWell Health Clubs are giving away free Fuji digital cameras to existing members who refer a friend.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, March 17, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LivingWell Health Clubs are quickly gaining notoriety as the fastest growing health club chain in Britain and Europe. With clubs all over the world from here to Australia, they are building a solid reputation based on quality and trust. Their USP is personalisation as they believe every new member should receive a warm welcome while fitness plans should be tailored to be completely bespoke for their members.

This is why many are choosing and referring LivingWell as one loyal member explains, "I wasn't an active gym bunny when I first joined LivingWell, in fact I'd hardly ever been in a gym at all. The thought scared me, I thought I would be judged for being unfit and overweight and I really didn't think I'd fit in. I knew I had to step out of my comfort zone though. LivingWell made it easy, my own personal trainer made me feel at ease instantly and told me that I should be proud I'd taken a step many don't. The other members were very friendly and most were experiencing the same weight struggles I was, it was an incredible motivation."

It's this first preconception that LivingWell Health Clubs are now trying harder than ever to eliminate. They know that their existing members enjoy the non-judgemental atmosphere and so with a new giveaway, they're hoping these members will tell their friends.

The giveaway is generous, as LivingWell are offering current members a Fuji Digital Camera, along with case and graphics card for those who refer a friend. Once the friend visits LivingWell the member receives this high value gift.

Justin Phillips is a member of LivingWell who has already benefitted from this referral offer, he says, "I refer my friends all the time anyway as LivingWell is part of my life and I'd love my friends to join me there. It's not all about the exercise, I adore all the facilities such as the steam rooms and spa too." To claim your free Fuji camera, simply visit www.livingwell.com and follow the instructions from the homepage. All you have to do is fill in a form and refer your friends.
