

TrackingTheWorld Offers Revenue Sharing for GPS Tracking Businesses

Existing GPS tracking dealers have the potential to earn up to 40-percent profit sharing based on GPS tracking software sales.

BURLINGAME, CA, USA, March 27, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TrackingTheWorld, a leading GPS tracking software provider, is offering generous revenue

sharing for existing GPS tracking businesses. The program allows business owners to earn up to 40-percent profit based on the number of GPS tracking software subscriptions generated by their customers.

"The more clients you sign up with our software services, the more monthly recurring income you earn," said Gilbert Walz, CEO of TrackingTheWorld.

As part of the revenue sharing program, TrackingTheWorld provides knowledgeable tech support services, and offers dedicated phone lines with the option of answering on behalf of the revenue sharing partner.

TrackingTheWorld's GPS tracking software is fully customizable to display a preferred business name upon user login, and provides a full range of features, including geo-fencing, speed monitoring, panic alerts, multiple viewing options, automated reporting, and more. Free software demos are available upon request.

For business owners interested in adding GPS tracking devices and accessories to their inventory, revenue sharing partners also receive best available pricing on all TrackingTheWorld hardware.

TrackingTheWorld has exclusively specialized in GPS tracking software and devices since 2002. For more information on revenue sharing for GPS tracking businesses, white label GPS tracking software, or purchasing GPS tracking devices from TrackingTheWorld distributors, please visit www.trackingtheworld.com.
