

The Law Office of Donald D. Vanarelli Launches VanarelliLaw.com Website

Leading NJ Elder Law and Estate Planning Attorney continues to set industry standards for best practices.

WESTFIELD, NJ, USA, March 31, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Law Office of Donald D. Vanarelli, a leading provider of legal services for seniors, the disabled and their families in New Jersey and New York, today announced the launch of its new website located at <http://VanarelliLaw.com>.

The website is designed to enhance usability, load quickly, and provide 100% functionality across the complete range of modern web browsers, including desktop PCs, laptops, tablets, and smartphones. These improvements help clients and other readers gain an understanding of our complex and confusing health care system; estate, trust and gift tax laws; public benefits laws; special needs planning issues; and court procedures, such as probate litigation, will contests and elder mediation.

"Our goal is simple: provide the best-possible user experience for website visitors researching elder law and related topics," said Attorney Donald D. Vanarelli, Esq. He continued, "The new website is a small but integral part of our longstanding commitment to the utilization of best practices in legal work."

The law firm's new website has enhancements which make it a valuable resource for seniors, the disabled and their families including:

- Information on the broad range of elder law and related services provided by the firm
- Information about major victories by firm lawyers in federal and state court
- Social media connectivity to the firm's profiles on Facebook, Twitter, Google+ and LinkedIn
- Online contact form to request a consultation, along with client questionnaires
- Attorney profiles, client reviews and testimonials and law office videos
- A law firm blog designed to help the elderly, the disabled and their families plan for and manage the legal and financial challenges they face.
