Certified Master Life and Business Coach Jeanne Boschert is here to tell you that the problem isn't you. It may be your plan. With an incredible personal and professional background, Jeanne has helped many people to maximize their potential and achieve their dreams.

Jeanne started her career in healthcare as a registered nurse and quickly moved up the ranks into management and leadership roles. In these roles, she found herself coaching and motivating her employees to perform at the highest levels. Following her heart, Jeanne left her six-figure corporate career to do what has always come naturally to her and coach full-time.

"I was a nurse by training and a coach at birth. People have always felt comfortable coming to me for advice and I love when I can help someone reach that "aha" moment when everything clicks," exclaims Boschert.

Jeanne's coaching certifications include Martha Beck Master Certified Life Coach, Life Purpose Business Coach, and High Performance Organizational Design Leader. Her extensive training incorporated with her personality and professional experiences has enabled Jeanne to work with countless individuals, entrepreneurs and organizations across North America.

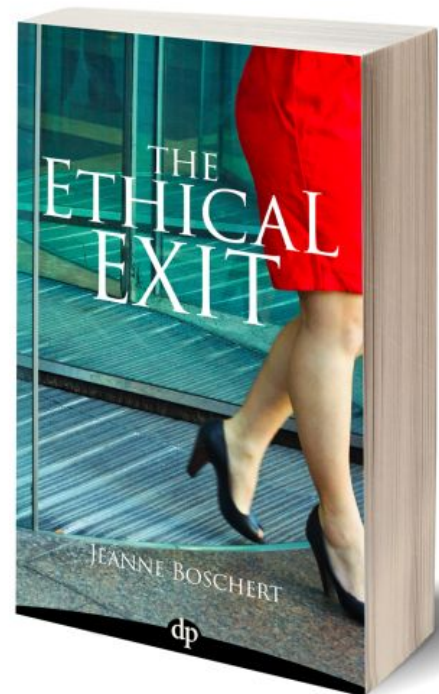

What makes Jeanne's approach unique is her ability draw on her experience as a Board Certified Psychiatric nursing and blend it with her unique coaching style to be able to customize her programs to fit every client's specific situation. “Uncovering the blind spots and leading people to the point of insight is the most interesting part of my work. I work with my clients to find out what they truly want, love and hope to achieve. I stick with each client until we reach their goals.”
