

Signal Management Processes Following EMA Guidelines

Pharmacovigilance, Drug Safety and Risk Management 2015 - A CPD Certified Conference

LONDON, LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, April 16, 2015

/EINPresswire.com/ -- SMi Group are delighted to have Novo Nordisk present at its 4th annual Pharmacovigilance, Drug Safety and Risk Management conference this May when it returns to London on 11th and 12th May 2015.

"I have been part of implementing a new signal management process in Novo Nordisk according to EMA regulations and guidelines. The perspective I will bring is practical experience working with the new regulations. Hopefully I should be able to provide attendees with an overview of how patient safety is thought into the drug development cycle as well as the post-marketing phase at Novo Nordisk. I will also present some of the challenges we face" - Dr Kashif Sheikh, Senior Safety Surveillance Advisor, Novo Nordisk
