Linda is the creator of the THRIVE Formula™, which takes you from hating your job, feeling like there's so much more you were meant to do, or asking "what am I doing this for?" to knowing exactly who you are and what direction and path you need to take to be happier in your career.

Linda Hardenstein is a certified executive coach and career reinventionist who helps people find their career sweet spot, seemingly by magic.

If you're a professional who has the talent, the knowledge, the skills and the abilities to be as successful as anyone, but you don't know what you want to do, or you like what you're doing, but hate your job, this is for you.

"I help people find the work that fits who they are so they can be happier doing what they are designed to do," says Linda. "I offer a fresh perspective and identify opportunities that my clients would have never imagined, creating an exciting new vision for what they can do. Then I provide the counseling and support to help them while they are on the path to make that new vision a reality."

"Her wise counsel and insightful analysis created the tipping point for me," one of her clients said. "I was more confident and better prepared for the interview that landed the architectural job I wanted. Linda has the Midas touch."
