Philadelphia Councilman Kenyatta Johnson visits Brightside Academy during Week of the Young Child

PHILADELPHIA, PA, USA, April 21, 2015

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Brightside Academy's 2501 McKean Street Philadelphia, PA location received a visit from Philadelphia Councilmen Kenyatta Johnson on April 14, 2015 during Week of the Young Child celebrations. Councilman Johnson read the 2015 PA One Book, Number One Sam by Greg Pizzoli to the children.

Councilman Johnson represents the 2nd District of Philadelphia, covering Center City, South, and Southwest Philadelphia. He has been an activist in the Philadelphia area since 1998, focusing on education and youth programs in the area. He served as the Pennsylvania State Representative for the 186th Legislative District from 2009-2012, and then moved to City Council.

Councilman Johnson is an advocate for education, park funding, and gun violence prevention. He supports the community through partnerships with various organizations, including the Goldenberg Group, the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, and Habitat for Humanity. The Councilman also created the Friends of the Bartram Group, focused on combatting school violence at Bartram High School.

Kenyatta Johnson is invested in the success of Philadelphia, and Brightside Academy plans to work with Councilman Johnson again on future projects.

"Councilman Johnson provides strong support for the education and youth programs in Philadelphia. His leadership and community partnerships fund programs that benefit our families and the communities we serve. We look forward to working with the Councilman to promote education and growth throughout the area," stated Stephanie Blake, Instructional Specialist at Brightside Academy.

The partnership between Brightside Academy and the Philadelphia City Council has a great
