

Jagged Row Releases New E.P. "Battle Cry"

The Row is rocking' across North America in support of fourth studio release

DALLAS, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, April 28, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jagged Row, long known in their native Texas for an unmatched high-energy rock and roll stage show, unique look and hook-heavy sound debuted their new E.P. Battle Cry Saturday, April 25th at the RBC in Deep Ellum, the hip and historic music and arts neighborhood in their hometown of Dallas, TX with special guest Dalton Rapattoni. Jagged Row is touring North America this spring and summer in support of Battle Cry and the music video for the first single "Jekyll & Hyde".

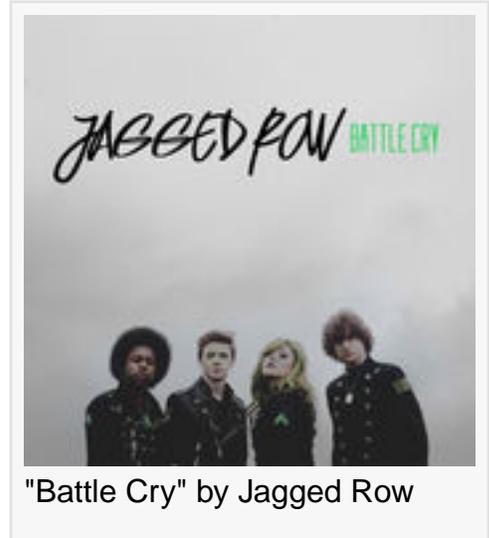

With their distinctive vocals, high energy, and catchy hooks, the four members of Jagged Row Jaci Butler, Matt Venhaus, Landon

Williams and Josh Jackson have achieved more than their fair share of accomplishments since the band formed in 2010. As the winners of the 2014 Oklahoma Dream Night Talent Search, Jagged Row is currently the headline guest performer at the 2015 Dream Night Talent Search North American tour, traveling across the U.S. and Canada and performing to enthusiastic audiences. The Texas natives recently wowed the crowd at the 2015 Hard Rock Rising Global Battle of the Bands Competition. Winners of a prestigious $25,000 scholarship to Berklee's Famous 5 week program, Jagged Row has shared the stage with Finger Eleven, Hanson, Bowling For Soup and more, and have performed at top venues includes House of Blues, Whisky A Go-Go, NAMM, The Texas Motor Speedway, State Fair of Texas, The Wildflower Festival and more.

Battle Cry is available now at iTunes, Google Play and wherever great music is sold.
