Nestled high up on Tamborine Mountain, in amongst the rainforest canopy, Ripple Massage (<https://www.ripplemassage.com.au>) has become known for creating unique massage styles and exclusive, hand-made massage products.

"Coffee is magic for the skin," said Ali Shaw, owner of Ripple Massage.

"When used as part of a facial treatment, it reduces inflammation and redness of the skin. The ground coffee beans act as an amazing exfoliant to polish the body, and university trials have shown that when used as part of a massage, it can reduce the appearance of cellulite.

"It also has the most incredible aroma, and as we use freshly ground, high quality Merlo coffee, we get the very best products to use during our Ripple Coffee Massage Package."

Ripple uses a uniquely developed formula to infuse the oil with the coffee aroma and properties. Ripple has also developed special recipes for a coffee scrub and nourishing coffee face mask.

Ripple's therapists massage with the warmed coffee oil and hot towel off as they go, so guests are left with silky skin, infused with the coffee aroma. Also included in the Ripple Coffee Massage package is full body coffee scrub and a coffee hydrating face mask that tightens the skin.

As part of Ripple's Coffee Massage Package, guests also receive a gift box with a coffee candle, hand-made coffee soap and a gift of Merlo chocolate coated coffee beans.
