Our publication is to focus on exclusive ,investigative reporting and analysis of business,political ,security and general development from the Sahel region to the western coast of Africa.We will dig behind the currents of life with an avowed sacred commitment to our motto of ” truths powered by ethics”

While Nigeria is our base of operations ,we are committed to coverage of happenings in Niger, Chad ,Cameroon and other neighboring nations which by several factors are linked and related to Nigeria. We hope to bridge the communication gap between Nigeria and her neighbours in economic and political life.

As a weekly paper,we intend to dwell on investigative ,exclusive reports and news including top interviews with sector leaders from the Sahel to the West African coast. We intend to transform into daily publication before long.

We want to inform the public that this is a start up spearheaded by a group of journalists with several decades of experience in journalism. We promise to be balanced ,fair and be guided by ethics of journalism.
