FT. MYERS, FLORIDA, USA, May 4, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Peace and happiness starts within. It's a choice. Imagine feeling free, full of energy, joy and fulfillment. Being happy and at peace is actually what everyone is looking for. Mostly we are only looking for solutions to our problems outside of ourselves, ignoring the love-based intelligence of our heart. The ultimate power of healing, freedom, creativity, love, and peace, derives from being in the present moment

Christine Bronson is a spiritual teacher and life coach, specializing in personal and spiritual growth and relationship healing. Her training and coaching program "The Ultimate Shift" is about raising one's conscious awareness to gain the necessary clarity to practically solve daily life issues, and develop a happy and successful lifestyle. We can't change others, but we can change ourselves. Christine guides her clients step by step, goal and result-oriented, by providing essential education, easy-to-do processes, energy exercises, sharing tools and techniques that bring more conscious awareness, clarity and stress-release.

"My life purpose and mission is to assist others who are ready and willing to wake up to their true Self, to heal, transform and manifest their desired goals and dreams," says Christine.

Christine belongs to the generation of human potential development. She says understanding that thoughts and emotions create reality was a profound game-changer in her life.

"In order to call myself a human being, to be able to help others, I had to first take stewardship of my own life, to transform my inner pain into self-love, self-

A native of Salzburg, Austria, Christine had been practicing as a spiritual teacher and life coach for over 30 years in her home country and later in the US. When her children reached adulthood, she intended to be a role model for following one's soul calling, no matter what age. Christine made a profound statement in her own life by immigrating to the US in 1994. In 2002, she returned to her passion of coaching and teaching.

"Personally, I started out in life with little self-esteem, self-confidence and self-worth, having been a victim of my own projections, by my own self-fulfilling self-pity stories," recalls Christine. "Before coming to the US, I gained the necessary self-knowledge, understanding, and self-discipline, committed to living empowered from my true self."

Today, Christine offers a Three-Month-Three-Level Program "The Ultimate Shift", or a short-term One-Day-Three-Level VIP Program (Virtual Intensive Processing) that is spiritually and psychologically educational, easy to understand. Her gift is to intuitively guide her clients to discover and experience for themselves how to reconnect to their true self, freedom, love, peace, power, potential, and creativity.

"We are spiritual beings having a spiritual experience in a human body."
