WILMINGTON, DE, USA, May 6, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NCM Online (www.ncmonline.com) -- a leader in the publication of data-driven web host evaluations, testing, analysis, and rankings -- has published a Web Hosting Coupon Codes and Flash Sales page now available at: <https://www.ncmonline.com/web-hosting-coupon-codes>

In order to provide its users with the latest promotional discounts, NCM Online maintains constant contact with more than popular 50 host companies. Time-limited flash sale information is uploaded the same day it becomes available.

The discount information is also posted to NCM Online's Pinterest, Twitter, Google+, and Facebook pages. Consumers can access any one of these to receive deep discounts from numerous established hosting providers.

For instance, HostGator does not generally overlap its sales, while GoDaddy provides an almost constant stream of time-limited promo codes.”

“There are a number of challenges in providing time-limited discount information,” said NCM Online editor, Patricia Roberts. She continued, “Because the price reductions often last only a number of hours, the elapsed time between receipt and posting must be kept to an absolute minimum. This requires 24/7/365 monitoring and publishing capabilities.”

“As the majority of these sales are unannounced prior to their start dates, we have made it a priority to study the marketing and markdown tendencies of the host companies,” commented NCM Online editor, Anthony Ailed. He added, “For instance, HostGator does not generally overlap its sales, while GoDaddy provides an almost constant stream of time-limited promo
