

The Government of Uganda announces it's first open competitive licensing round for petroleum exploration

The 12th Africa Independents Forum 2015, and 8th Strategy Briefing on African National Oil Companies

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, May 12, 2015 /EINPresswire.com/ -- There are many reasons participants will benefit from this Africa focused oil & gas event, being held at The Waldorf Hilton Hotel, London, UK, over the 26th – 27th May 2015

1. Over 120 key senior executives involved in Africa will be present, with 27 Presentations made at the Conference, and unique insight on African state oil players provided in a Strategy Briefing with over 600 images provided on the shifting state of play in the Continent.
2. The Uganda 2015 Bid Round will be showcased, for the first time in London, with details provided by Government's Ernest Rubondo, Acting Director of Petroleum, Directorate of Energy & Minerals, Uganda.
3. Players from across Africa, both listed and unlisted, will expose opportunities, farmouts and new ventures – for the corporate upstream industry.
4. Corporate players with acreage and assets in the Gulf of Guinea, Northwest Africa, Maghreb-North Africa, Eastern and Southern Africa, and in several landlocked and emerging littoral frontier states, will make Presentations.
5. Key equity financiers and investors on AIM and the LSE will join the Speaker Panels, along with firms drawn from Africa, Europe, and elsewhere.
6. The Strategy Briefing, prior to the Forum, provides in-depth and critical insights on Africa's National Oil Companies, Licensing Agencies and Governments, Cape-to-Cairo, including on frontiers, open acreage, bid rounds, geo-politics, risks and economic drivers shaping Africa's oil-gas game.
7. As a delegate you may join the 69th PetroAfricanus-World Networking Cocktail Reception on Wednesday 27th May (with Guest Speaker).
